SEVEN DAY SONNET Celebrates the Holiday Season by Giving $500 to Seven Lucky Fans Each Week Until Christmas!

Chicago, IL's SEVEN DAY SONNET is spreading holiday cheer this season! With all of the love the band has received from fans this year, they have decided to help seven lucky fans this Christmas season. Every Friday from now until Christmas, 7DS will be giving away $500 to one of their fans. To enter, all you have to do is email sevendaysonnetmusic@gmail.com and tell 7DS what you will do with the money and what radio station or media outlet you heard about this promotion from. One person will be picked every Friday by the radio station and us to receive $500! Please only one entry per person or household.

"We're psyched about the giveaway," states vocalist Benjamin Franklin Vanbuskirk. "We have the coolest, most diehard fans on the planet that have given us so much love, support and encouragement over this past year. It's inspired us to reach deeper as a band and try to return some of the love that has been given to us. We thank you all for the continuing love and support and wish you all a wonderful holiday season."

SEVEN DAY SONNET recently announced their November/December tour trek with Sevendust and Eye Empire and dates are now available! See below for all currently booked tour dates. The band just finished their Fallen Heroes / Rising Rock tour in support of their latest single, 'Farewell To Good Days', which is produced by the Johnny K Camp (Disturbed, Staind, Sevendust) and charted at #1 on the BDS New and Active Rock Chart. The track is in rotation at several of today's hottest stations, including new adds at WJJO and WRIF this week. You can view the new music video for 'Farewell To Good Days', on the band's YouTube page. The video is also in current rotation on MTV and at MTV.com. The band's previous single, 'Hapless', spent over 17 weeks within the Top 50 on the BDS New and Active Rock Chart.

The band will enter Groovmaster Studios in Chicago, IL in January with the Johnny K Camp to complete work on their debut full-length, self-titled album set to be unleashed on the world in April 2012 with Big Time Records.

Refusing to slow down over the past year, SEVEN DAY SONNET has gone from playing back alley clubs to expanding practically overnight-- touring with bands like Saliva, Sevendust, Rev Theory, Nonpoint and Adelitas Way and recording with Grammy Award-winning producer Sylvia Massy (Tool, System of a Down) and Grammy-nominated producer Johnny K.
