

For Immediate Release
October 3rd, 2011

Members of LAMB OF GOD join MEKONG Vietnamese Restaurant and the PINK INK FUND at its INNAUGURAL FUND RAISER

The 2011 Style Weekly reader poll's "Best Tattoo Artist in Richmond" winner, Amy Black, is the owner of Trademark Tattoo in Carytown, and founder of the PINK INK FUND. PINK INK FUND was established to help provide financial assistance to breast cancer survivors hoping to restore self-esteem by having reconstructive tattooed nipple re-pigmentation. More information can be found here: <http://www.trademarktattoo.net>

PINK INK FUND is teaming up LAMB OF GOD's Randy Blythe, Chris Adler, and Willie Adler, along with MEKONG Vietnamese Restaurant to help raise money for breast cancer survivors who need financial assistance in receiving reconstructive nipple tattooing. Currently on tap for the evening: RARE BEER AUCTION, tapping of some excellent kegs, items for raffle and more!

Music provided by the DJ WILLIAMS PROJEKT!

This fundraising event runs from 7pm-11pm, Thursday, October 6th at Mekong Restaurant (6004 West Broad St, Richmond, VA 23220) www.mekongva.com
(This is neither a concert nor a venue, but purely a charity event. There is no admission charge, but donations are suggested and appreciated.)

Warren Haskell from KELSICK'S MARKET in Gloucester, VA has generously donated ALL of these fine brews for auction: BEER GEEKS, please note the super rare:
