MISS MAY I Releases New Album 'At Heart' TODAY with Rise Records!

Performing on the MAIN STAGE this Year at the VANS WARPED TOUR!

MISS MAY I is proud to release their new album, At Heart, today with Rise Records. A pummelling album that Revolver Magazine describes as having “plenty of monster tracks, propulsive riffs, and searing breakdowns” (album review: May/June 2012), At Heart will charm new fans looking for a fresh taste of hard-hitting metal and longstanding fans that crave the signature MISS MAY I sound. At Heart is produced by famed record producer Machine (Lamb of God, Every Time I Die, Suicide Silence) and is poised to be one of the top records of its genre this year. Head to www.missmayi.merchnow.com to buy your copy now!

The band is thrilled to meet their fans at several signings during their main stage run at VANS WARPED TOUR this year, including appearances at the Project143 booth, Alternative Press Magazine booth, and the MISS MAY I merch stand! When arriving at the festival, attendees will be given specific times for each individual signing as well as the band’s performance times (they are scheduled to change per date). Additionally, MISS MAY I drummer Jerod Boyd and bassist Ryan Neff will be giving one-on-one daily music lessons at the official BANDHAPPY Music Lesson Tent. This is a great opportunity for fans to learn directly from the band members themselves! For more information on the tent, visit www.bandhappy.com/warpedtour.
